Quadpack Spain ramps up its management team

Quadpack Spain has hired Marcela Buitrago as its new business unit director. Reporting to Group CEO Tim Eaves, Marcela will supervise and manage all aspects of the business, from sales and project management to finance and administration. The appointment will enable Tim Eaves to take on a strategic role in managing the Group's international operations.

A chartered public accountant, Marcela is a highly experienced finance professional and has worked at Quadpack for seven years, most recently heading up the finance department.

"I am very excited and feel very privileged", says Marcela. "Spain is the biggest market in the Quadpack group and we have exciting plans for the future. What's more, we have a first-class management team in place, with extensive experience in all areas of the business."

Quadpack Spain's management team includes area sales manager Joan Valls, operations manager Alex San Miguel and client services manager Cristina Sanchez.

Marcela and her team next plan to target the Portuguese market. One of her first moves has been to appoint Bruno Melo in Lisbon to set up Quadpack's base in Portugal. She also intends to concentrate on the pharmaceuticals sector. More news will be announced soon.
