Quadpack receives EcoVadis Gold Medal for sustainability performance

Advances in sustainable business transformation have led to an improved score

Quadpack has been awarded a Gold Medal by EcoVadis, the global, independent rating agency for sustainability management. The beauty packaging provider has improved its score, reaching a total of 70/100, thanks to its policies and actions in ethics, labour & human rights, environment and sustainable procurement. In addition, Louvrette, a Quadpack company, has maintained its Silver Medal.

Quadpackâ€™s sustainability strategy aims to have a positive impact on society and the environment through its people, processes and products. â€œWe have kept our focus and commitment with this strategy despite the challenges that weâ€™ve all faced in the last two years,â€? says Hulya Gray, Quadpack Sustainability Champion

Quadpackâ€™s processes are on course to make such a positive impact, in particular

Carbon management â€“ The biomass plant in Quadpack Wood is helping reduce around 400 tonnes of CO2 emissions a year. In 2021, Quadpack launched a reforestation project in Spain that is helping recover areas touched by wildfires in the last few years.

Energy management â€“ 100% of manufacturing plants, offices in Barcelona and Louvrette and five more sites use renewable electricity.

Smart manufacturing â€“ An Industry 4.0 project is being rolled out at Quadpack Wood, with Internet of Things (IoT) devices providing real-time data of the manufacturing process, giving process visibility and efficiency control of the equipment. This multi-year project will include more factories and system implementation.

Business transformation â€“ The first wave of Quadpack Connect, a long-term digitalisation project that includes the deployment of new ERP, CRM, data and analytics tools from the SAP HANA suite, has gone live in 2021.

Supply chain â€“ Thanks to the EcoVadis Buyer Module platform, Quadpack can support and follow its suppliersâ€™ sustainable transformation

B Corp â€“ In 2022, Quadpack aims to join the ecosystem of B Corp-certified companies that work to make businesses a force for good.
